Vienna, September 21, N. S.

M. Braue the Miniſter of Wolfenbuttel at this Court, had Audience of the Emperour on the 18th Inſtant, to notify the Duke his Maſter's having been named one of the Arbitrators for accommodating the Differences between their Britannick and Pruſſian Majeſties. Deputations from the Dyet in Hungary having of late been pretty frequent, the Emperour has thought fit to forbid any more from coming, and has limited the Seſſion of that Dyet to the End of this Month. Their Imperial Majeſties ſet out this Afternoon for Halbturn, a Hunting Seat, accompanied by the Duke of Lorrain: Prince Eugene and Count Sinzendorf are to follow them in two or three Days. The Court will return hither on the 30th, in order to celebrate the Emperour's Birth-Day, which is the firſt of next Month. Banniers the French Courier, who brought hither the News of the Birth of the Dauphin, has received from the Emperour a Preſent of a Gold Chain and Medal valued at 200 Ducats. M. de Buſſy the French Secretary here, will diſpatch back the ſaid Courier in a Day or two.

Hague, October 4, N. S. The States have an Account that the Subdelegates in Eaſt-Friſeland have received Orders from the Court of Vienna to ſuſpend their Proceedings upon the Differences there. A Yacht is ſent to Bruſſels to bring hither the Earl of Denbigh and his Lady, who are to lodge at Count Welderen's. General Keppel is expected here from Gelderland next Week. Letters from Hambourg of the 30th paſt adviſe, that Brigadier Sutton being returned thither from Copenhagen on the 26th, ſet out from thence on the 28th, intending to proceed by the Way of Hanover for England. The French Envoy at Hambourg had given a very magnificent Entertainment on the 25th, to all the foreign Miniſters and Perſons of Diſtinction reſiding in that City, on Occaſion of the Birth of the Dauphin. Which Rejoycings were continued the 28th by a Supper and Ball, and were to be concluded a third Night with a Maſquerade.

Bruſſels, Oct. 5, N. S. The States of Flanders have, as is uſual about this Time, granted their annual Subſidy for the next Year 1730. On the 29th paſt Count Albert took Poſſeſſion of the Lordſhip of Grimberg, as Prince of Berghes, and gave a ſplendid Entertainment on that Occaſion, at which a great Number of Perſons of Quality were preſent. The Prince and his Conſort were received and conducted to their Caſtle by four Companies of the Inhabitants of that Lordſhip under Arms. And at Night a Firework was played off. The Celebration of the Emperour's Birth-day, which was on the 1ſt Inſtant, having been put off to the 3d, it was then kept with great Splendor.
